The film lender declares that she/he is empowered to lend the print of the film now entered and commits to refrain from withdrawing the film from the Festival. The lender further commits to and agrees with the following:

The print must be sent in the format indicated below:

- entrants must cover the expenses related to transportation of the documentation, preview CD or tape and, later, the 35mm print (or video or DVD, by agreement only) to the Festival (indicate "No Commercial Value")
- RIFF will cover the expenses related to the return or forwarding of the film print after the last festival showing.
- Upon notification that RIFF has accepted your film, you must email immediately the following for publicity purposes: Synopsis, Cast/Credit information, Bios of directors, producer, writer, and stars, and one still photo from the film, to the address that will be provided to you.
- The number of screenings, days and venue are at the sole discretion of RIFF
- Acceptance of this film for the Festival does not guarantee airline or hotel accommodations for talent or production crew

- RIFF reserves the right to complete any information not supplied by the filmmaker from whatever source available and will not be responsible if incorrect information is entered.
- Submission tapes or DVDs will not be returned.

Every reasonable effort will be made to protect films and tapes shown at the Riverside International Film Festival from damage or loss. RIFF and /or its management and/or the jury cannot be held responsible for damage or loss.

Each entry must be accompanied by the appropriate entry fee. Entry fees are not refundable. Fees cover registration, notification that your entry has been received, and notification of results. These fees may be paid by check, money order, or cashier's check, made payable to Riverside International Film Festival.

The RIFF Film Selection Committee selects the films for public presentation at the Riverside International Film Festival. If a film is selected for screening, RIFF will notify the entrant by phone, fax, or email.
